NATIONAL SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This National Settlement Agreement is entered into by the Plaintiff on behalf of herself and the Class Members, on the one hand, and the Defendants Dollarama S.E.C., Dollarama Inc. and Dollarama GP Inc. (together, “Dollarama”), on the other hand, to resolve the Action in full as among the Plaintiff, the Class Members and Dollarama.

Subject to Court approval as required by the Code of Civil Procedure of Québec and as provided herein, the Parties hereby stipulate and agree that, in consideration for the mutual concessions, promises and covenants set forth in this Agreement and upon the issuance by the Court of a Final Judgment Approving the Settlement and the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Action shall be fully settled and terminated upon the terms and conditions contained herein.

I. PREAMBLE

- A. WHEREAS, on May 29, 2023, the Plaintiff filed the Application for Authorization, asserting claims in relation to the prices advertised and charged by Dollarama for products subject to Environmental Handling Fees (“Ecofees”) it sold in Canada, including claims under the Consumer Protection Act, CQLR, c. P-40.1 (“CPA”); the regulations adopted under the CPA, including the Order in Council Respecting the Policy on Accurate Pricing for Merchants Who Use Optical Scanner Technology, CQLR c. P-40.1, r. 2 (the “Accurate Pricing Policy”); the Competition Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-34; the Civil Code of Québec; the Regulation Respecting the Recovery and Reclamation of Products by Enterprises, CQLR c. Q-2, r. 40.1 and other similar statutory and regulatory provisions across Canada; and the Scanner Price Accuracy Voluntary Code issued by the Retail Council of Canada, the whole as more fully detailed in the Application for Authorization;
- B. WHEREAS Dollarama denies any liability or wrongdoing of any kind regarding the Plaintiff’s allegations and shall not be deemed to have conceded or admitted to any such any liability or wrongdoing by reason of this Settlement;
- C. WHEREAS the Application for Authorization has not been adjudicated;
- D. WHEREAS on January 30, 2024, the Parties concluded a National Settlement Agreement providing, inter alia, that persons who wished to file a claim had to pre-register with the Settlement Administrator by sending their email addresses to the same, and that the Distribution Fund would be paid to the Approved Claimants via Gift Cards with a maximum value of $15.00, as appears from the Court record (the “Initial Settlement”);

- E. WHEREAS by judgment dated April 17, 2024, the Court refused to approve the Initial Settlement, for the reasons detailed therein (the “Initial Judgment”);
- F. WHEREAS by judgment dated June 4, 2024, the Court ordered the Settlement Administrator to inform the persons who had provided their email addresses that the Court had not approved the Initial Settlement, and to destroy the list of these persons’ email addresses without keeping a copy, as appears from the Court record, the Settlement Administrator having complied with the said orders;
- G. WHEREAS in August and September, 2024, the Parties participated in private mediation sessions (the “Mediation”) presided by retired Chief Justice, the Honourable François Rolland, O.C., Ad. E. (the “Mediator”);
- H. WHEREAS the Parties, represented by experienced counsel and with the assistance and support of the Mediator, have proceeded to good faith, arms-length negotiations in order to settle the Class Action, and have carefully reviewed the relevant legal, factual, financial and practical considerations in coming to this Settlement, including, without limitation, the following:
 - i. Ecofees are mandatory and their amount is set by regulation. The Class Members could not forego the payment of Ecofees or reduce their amount by purchasing the same products elsewhere. As such, this case challenged how Ecofees were displayed by Dollarama regarding its products subject to Ecofees during the Class Period, not the requirement to charge Ecofees;
 - ii. Dollarama remits 100% of the Ecofees it collects from its clients to the organizations responsible for recovering and recycling products subject to Ecofees in Canada, retailers being mere collection agents in that regard. As such, Dollarama made no revenue or profit whatsoever on the Ecofees it collected from the Class Members;
 - iii. the Ecofees Dollarama collected from Class Members were between 8 ¢ and 60 ¢ per sale, the maximum purchase price of an item subject to Ecofees at Dollarama being $5.00;
 - iv. while the Parties disagree on the legal requirements regarding the labelling of the price of products subject to Ecofees, any such disagreement has become moot given the permanent Business Practice Changes implemented by Dollarama, without admission, in the context of this Settlement;

- I. WHEREAS, having due regard to all applicable considerations herein, including those listed above, the Parties, represented by experienced counsel and with the assistance and support of the Mediator, have concluded that it is desirable that the Class Action be settled on the terms and conditions reflected in this Agreement in order to avoid the costs, delays and uncertainty of protracted litigation, that these terms and conditions are fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Parties and the Class Members, and that they address the issues raised by the Court in the Initial Judgment;
- J. WHEREAS Dollarama consents to the authorization of the action as a class action solely for the purposes of implementing this Agreement, and contingent on the Court's approval as provided for in this Agreement, on the express understanding that such authorization shall not limit or affect the respective rights of the Parties in any way in the event that this Agreement is not approved or is terminated;
- K. WHEREAS the Parties assert that the Plaintiff is an adequate Class representative for settlement purposes.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

4. Neither the fact of this Agreement, nor any provision contained herein, nor any action taken hereunder shall constitute or be construed as an admission, in this Class Action or in any other action or proceeding, of the validity of any claim, allegation or cause of action made by the Plaintiff in the Class Action, nor of any wrongdoing or liability on the part of any Released Party, nor of the propriety of authorizing a class action for any purpose other than the Settlement.
5. The Court's authorization of the Class Action pursuant to this Agreement shall not be deemed to be an adjudication of any fact or issue for any purpose other than the accomplishment of the provisions of this Agreement, and shall not be considered res judicata unless and until the Court enters a Final Judgment Approving the Settlement and the Effective Date occurs.
8. In the event that the Court fails to render the Pre-Approval Judgment or the Final Judgment Approving the Settlement as contemplated herein; or, if rendered, one of the said judgments is reversed, vacated, or modified in any material respect by another court; or the Effective Date does not occur for any reason; or the Agreement is otherwise terminated or rendered null and void — then:
 - 8.1 this Agreement, including the Parties' agreement to class action authorization for settlement purposes only, shall be null and void for all legal intents and purposes whatsoever and will not constitute, be construed as, or be admissible in evidence as an admission of any kind or be used for any purpose in the Class Action or any other action;

- 8.2 the Pre-Approval Judgment, if rendered, shall be vacated for all legal intents and purposes whatsoever, and thereafter no class or classes will remain authorized;
- 8.3 any Administration Expenses incurred shall be paid out of the Settlement Amount and the remaining balance shall be returned forthwith to Dollarama by the Settlement Administrator, including interest; and
- 8.4 the Parties shall retain all the rights they had immediately preceding the execution of this Agreement, including the Plaintiff's right to seek authorization of the same Class in the Class Action, and Dollarama's right to oppose such authorization on any available grounds.

IV. SETTLEMENT RELIEF AND RELEASES

A. Settlement Amount

9. The maximum amount of Dollarama's monetary obligations under this Agreement shall be the Settlement Amount, excluding internal costs incurred by Dollarama pursuant to the Notice Program.

Administration Expenses. Dollarama shall have no responsibility whatsoever in that regard, and shall be fully released of any further obligations under this Settlement upon making the payment provided in paragraph 11 above.

13. On or before the Post-Approval Notice Date, Class Counsel and the Settlement Administrator shall cause the Post-Approval Notice to be published for the benefit of the Class Members in accordance with the Notice Program, and the Settlement Administrator shall upload the Claim Form on the Settlement website.
14. The maximum net amount to be paid to the Class Members is the Distribution Fund, which the Settlement Administrator shall pay equally among the Approved Claimants by means of Interac E-Transfers, as follows:
 - 14.1 if the number of Approved Claimants is such that the value of each Interac E-Transfer is between $3.00 and $10.00, the Settlement Administrator shall cause an Interac E-Transfer to be sent to each Approved Claimant within a delay of 30 days following the Claim Deadline;
 - 14.2 if the number of Approved Claimants is such that the value of each Interac E-Transfer equals the maximum amount of $10.00 and, after all reasonable efforts have been made to distribute Interac E-Transfers to the largest possible number of Approved Claimants, there remains an undistributed balance of the Distribution Fund, the said remaining balance, subject to Court approval, shall be distributed cy-près to the Charities by the Settlement Administrator within the delay ordered by the Court, as provided under Section 15 below and in accordance with the provisions of art. 596, par. 3 C.C.P.;
 - 14.3 if the number of Approved Claimants is such that the value of each Interac E-Transfer would be equal to an amount of less than $3.00, the Parties, taking into account the costs and expenses that would be incurred in that regard, have agreed that the distribution of an Interac E-Transfer to each Approved Claimant would be impracticable, inappropriate and too costly. Consequently, subject to Court approval, if this occurs the Distribution Fund shall be distributed cy-près to the Charities by the Settlement Administrator within the delay ordered by the Court, as provided under Section 15 below and in accordance with the provisions of art. 597 C.C.P.

15. In the event that the Distribution Fund, in whole or in part, must be distributed cy-près to the Charities under the provisions of paragraph 14 above, the following rules shall apply, subject to Court approval:
 - 15.1 the Settlement Administrator shall advise the Parties forthwith that the Distribution Fund, subject to Court approval, must be distributed cy-près to Charities, in whole or in part, under the provisions of paragraph 14 above, and shall inform them of the amount to be so distributed;
 - 15.2 within a delay of 30 days following this notice, the Plaintiff shall select, in her discretion, a Charity or Charities to whom 50% of the cy-près distribution shall be made, and Dollarama shall do likewise for the other 50% of the cy-près distribution;
 - 15.3 within a delay of 30 days following these selections, the Plaintiff shall file an application with the Court to approve the cy-près distribution in accordance with the Parties' choice in that regard, and subject to any terms and conditions to be imposed by the Court. Dollarama shall be notified of that application and may make representations to the Court in that regard;
 - 15.4 within the delay provided by the Court, the Settlement Administrator shall proceed to the cy-près distribution by paying the amounts owing to the Class Action Assistance Fund pursuant to the percentage determined under the Regulation Respecting the Percentage Withheld by the Class Action Assistance Fund, CQLR c. F-3.2.0.1.1, r. 2., then to the Charities, the whole after payment of Class Counsel Fees and Expenses and of any applicable Administrative Expenses. The Class Action Assistance Fund shall be entitled to claim the said percentage on the Québec residents' portion of the Distribution Fund, which shall be equivalent to 22% of the Distribution Fund, representing the proportion of Québec's population to the total population of Canada per Statistics Canada population estimates as of the 4th quarter for the year 2023.
16. Once the Settlement Administrator has distributed the Distribution Fund as described above, the Settlement Administrator shall submit a report to the Court and the Parties forthwith confirming the same and the details of the said distribution, and the Plaintiff shall diligently apply to the Court for a closing judgment.

C. Business Practice Changes

17. Dollarama, without any admission of liability or wrongdoing of any kind, and as a condition sine qua non for the Plaintiff's acceptance of this Agreement, has also implemented the following Business Practice Changes:

17.1 in June and July 2023, memoranda were issues to all store managers, supervisors, territory managers and operations managers in provinces in which Ecofees have been implemented, to modify the shelf-labels for products subject to Ecofees such that they display the total price payable for same including Ecofees (before taxes) and to put more emphasis on the said total price than on the amounts of which it is composed, before store opening on the relevant day:

- a. on June 13, 2023, a memorandum to that effect was issued to all store managers, supervisors, territory managers and operations managers in Québec;
- b. on June 23, 2023, a memorandum to that effect was issued to all store managers, supervisors, territory managers and operations managers in Alberta, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Ontario, Prince Edward Island, Saskatchewan and Yukon; and
- c. on July 4, 2023, a memorandum to that effect was issued to all store managers, supervisors, territory managers and operations managers in British Columbia;

copies of the said memoranda and a picture of the new label are attached en liasse as Schedule J to this Agreement;

17.2 between June 2, 2023 and July 30, 2023, Dollarama made the necessary arrangements with the manufacturers of products subject to Ecofees who pre-printed the Dollarama price directly on their packaging, to remove the said pre-printed Dollarama price from same. When the current inventories of products bearing the pre-printed Dollarama price are depleted, none of the product packaging subject to Ecofees will include a pre-printed Dollarama price. Sample pictures of the new Dollarama packaging for products subject to Ecofees are attached en liasse as Schedule K to this Agreement.

- 17.3 Dollarama has also stopped adding a Dollarama price sticker directly on the packaging of products subject to Ecofees that did not have such a pre-printed Dollarama price.
18. The Business Practice Changes shall remain in effect so long as the legislative provisions raised in the Class Action also remain in effect and are not otherwise repealed or amended. As such, Dollarama has taken all commercially reasonable means and will take all commercially reasonable means in the future to insure that:
- 18.1 the price expressed, indicated, or advertised for any product subject to Ecofees sold by Dollarama in Canada, including on a technological support, displays the total price payable for same including Ecofees (before taxes), and that more emphasis is put on said total price than on the amounts of which it is composed; and that
- 18.2 no price will be pre-printed and no price sticker will be apposed directly on the packaging of a product subject to Ecofees sold by Dollarama in Canada, unless it displays the total price payable for said product including Ecofees (before taxes) and more emphasis is put on the total price than on the amounts of which it is composed.
19. The Plaintiff and Class Counsel acknowledge and concede that the Business Practice Changes are in compliance with the law and that the injunctive relief sought in the Class Action is without object, for all legal intents and purposes whatsoever.
20. The payment by Dollarama of the Settlement Amount together with the Business Practice Changes are the consideration to the Class Members for this Settlement.

D. Releases

21. The Agreement shall be the sole and exclusive remedy for all Released Claims of all Releasing Parties against all Released Parties. No Released Party shall be subject to liability of any kind to any Releasing Party with respect to any Released Claim.
22. Upon the Effective Date, each and every Releasing Party shall be deemed to have released and forever discharged each of the Released Parties of and from any and all liability for any and all Released Claims, and shall be permanently barred and enjoined from instituting, filing, commencing, maintaining, prosecuting or continuing to prosecute any action or proceeding of any kind in which any Released Claim is asserted in whole or in part against any Released Party before any Court, forum, regulatory authority or other tribunal, and from participating directly or indirectly in any such action or proceeding, whether individually, as a class member, collectively, representatively, derivatively or in any other capacity whatsoever.

23. Upon the Effective Date, each of the Released Parties shall be deemed to have released and forever discharged each of the Releasing Parties and their respective counsel, including Class Counsel, for all claims arising out of or relating to the institution, prosecution and resolution of the Class Action, except to enforce the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement.

E. No Admission

24. Whether or not consummated, this Agreement is not and may not be construed as, offered or received in evidence as, or deemed to be evidence of a presumption, a concession or an admission of any kind by any Released Party of the truth of any fact alleged or of the validity of any claim or cause of action that has been, could have been, or in the future might be asserted by a Releasing party or any person, whether in the context of a litigation or otherwise, nor of any liability, fault or wrongdoing of any kind by any Released Party.

V. CLASS COUNSEL FEES AND EXPENSES

25. Subject to Court approval, the Plaintiff shall ask the Court to approve Class Counsel Fees for a total amount of $800,000.00 plus taxes, as well as Class Counsel Expenses not exceeding $25,000.00 plus taxes (collectively the "Class Counsel Fees and Expenses"). The amounts approved by the Court in that regard, inclusive of taxes, shall be paid out of and deducted from the Settlement Amount and paid by the Settlement Administrator in accordance with the Court's judgment, once the said judgment is no longer subject to being appealed and becomes final and executory.
26. The Class Counsel Fees and Expenses are inclusive of all judicial and extrajudicial legal fees, costs and disbursements of any kind, as well as any reimbursement of payments received from the Class Action Assistance Fund incurred up to and including the Effective Date.

27. Class Counsel will make representations before the Court to obtain approval of the Class Counsel Fees and Expenses. Dollarama shall take no position with regards to the approval of the Class Counsel Fees and Expenses, during the Final Approval Hearing or at another hearing in which the Plaintiff will seek approval of the Class Counsel Fees and Expenses, other than that they have agreed to pay them out of the Settlement Amount as fair and reasonable in the circumstances.
28. In consideration for the payment of the Class Counsel Fees and Expenses, as approved by the Court, and of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Class Counsel shall not claim any other fee, cost, expense, or disbursement of any kind whatsoever from any Released Party or Class Member. Furthermore, Class Counsel shall be permanently barred and enjoined from instituting, filing, commencing, maintaining, prosecuting or continuing to prosecute any action or proceeding of any kind in which any Released Claim is asserted in whole or in part against any Released Party before any Court, forum, regulatory authority or other tribunal, and from participating directly or indirectly in any such action or proceeding, whether as counsel of record, counsel, mandatary, advisor, individually, as a class member, collectively, representatively, derivatively or in any other capacity whatsoever.

VI. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR

29. The Parties have retained Concilia Services Inc. as the Settlement Administrator to help implement the terms and conditions of the Agreement, subject to Court approval.
30. The Settlement Administrator shall assist with various administrative tasks related to the administration of the Settlement and the implementation of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including, without limitation:
 - 30.1 causing the Class Notice to be published pursuant to the Notice Program;
 - 30.2 answering written inquiries from Class Members and/or forwarding such inquiries to Class Counsel, and answering telephone calls until a closing judgment is rendered;
 - 30.3 preparing a report on the dissemination of the Class Notice, to be filed prior to the Final Approval Hearing, confirming the last date on which the Pre-Approval Notice was published;

- 30.4 proceeding to the distribution of the Distribution Fund in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein;
 - 30.5 otherwise assisting with the administration of the Settlement and the implementation of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
31. The Settlement Administrator shall accurately and objectively describe the provisions of this Agreement in communications with Class Members and train and instruct its employees and agents to do so; shall provide prompt, accurate and objective responses to inquiries from Class Counsel and/or Dollarama or Dollarama's Counsel; and shall keep a clear and careful record of all communications with Class Members, all expenses incurred, all data obtained, and all of the tasks they have performed in the context of the Settlement.

VII. NOTICE PROGRAM

A. Pre-Approval Notice

32. No later than the Pre-Approval Notice Date, the Settlement Administrator and the Parties shall cause the Pre-Approval Notice to be published in accordance with the Notice Program.
33. The Parties agree that the Notice Program provides for the most efficient means to effect notice to the Class under the circumstances of this case.
34. At or prior to the Final Approval Hearing, the Parties and the Settlement Administrator shall provide the Court with a report attesting that the Pre-Approval Notice has been published in accordance with the Notice Program.

B. Objections

35. Unless otherwise authorized by the Court, any Class Member who intends to object to the approval of the Agreement must do so in writing no later than the Objection Deadline.
36. The written objection must be filed with the Court or notified to Class Counsel by email (jzukran@lpclex.com) or by mail by no later than the Objection Deadline. The written objection must include:
- 36.1 A heading which refers to the Class Action (Ohayon v. Dollarama S.E.C. et al., SCM no. 500-06-001243-233);

- 36.2 The objector's name, address, telephone number and email address and, if represented by counsel, of his or her counsel;
 - 36.3 A statement that the objector purchased a product subject to an Environmental Handling Fee from Dollarama in Canada during the Class Period;
 - 36.4 A statement that the Class Member is objecting to the approval of the Agreement and the grounds supporting the objection;
 - 36.5 Copies of any papers, briefs, or other documents upon which the objection is based;
 - 36.6 Whether the objector intends to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, either in person, remotely or through counsel; and
 - 36.7 The objector's signature.
- 37. Any Class Member who files or notifies a written objection no later than the Objection Deadline, as described above, may appear at the Final Approval Hearing, either in person, remotely or through counsel hired at the Class Member's expense, to object to any aspect of the fairness, reasonableness, or adequacy of this Agreement.
 - 38. Unless otherwise authorized by the Court, any Class Member who fails to comply with the above provisions shall waive and forfeit any and all rights he or she may have to appear separately and/or to object, and shall be bound by all the terms of this Agreement and by all proceedings, orders and judgments entered in the Action.

C. Requests for Exclusion (to Opt-Out)

- 39. Any Class Member may request to be excluded (to opt-out) from the Class Action.
- 40. A Class Member who wishes to opt-out of the Class must do so by sending to the clerk of the Court a written Request for Exclusion that is postmarked no later than the Opt-Out Deadline. The Request for Exclusion may also be sent to Class Counsel via email (izukran@lpclex.com) or by mail, and Class Counsel will then file it in the Court record.

41. The Request for Exclusion must be personally signed by the Class Member requesting exclusion, include his or her email address and mailing address, and contain a statement that indicates a desire to be excluded from the Class Action.
42. Any Class Member who does not file or send a timely written Request for Exclusion shall be bound by all subsequent proceedings, orders and the Final Judgment Approving the Settlement in the Action, unless they already have pending litigation or arbitration against Dollarama relating to the Released Claims.
43. Any Class Member who properly requests to be excluded from the Class Action shall not be bound by any orders or judgments entered in the Action, gain any rights by virtue of the Agreement, nor be entitled to object to any aspect of the Agreement.

D. Post-Approval Notice and Claim Form

44. No later than the Post-Approval Notice Date, the Parties and the Settlement Administrator shall cause the Post-Approval Notice to be published in accordance with the Notice Program, and the Settlement Administrator shall cause the Claim Form to be uploaded on the Settlement web site.
45. The Parties agree that the Notice Program provides for the most efficient means to effect notice to the Class under the circumstances of this case.
46. At or prior to the Final Approval Hearing, the Settlement Administrator and Class Counsel shall provide the Court with a report attesting that the Post-Approval Notice has been published in accordance with the Notice Program.

E. Media Communications

47. Following the issuance of the Pre-Approval Judgment, and following the issuance of the Final Judgment Approving the Settlement, the Parties may issue a joint press release or separate press releases. Dollarama and Class Counsel may post the joint or separate press releases on their websites, if they so choose.
48. Any such press release shall only include information relating to the Class Action or this Agreement available in the public record. The Parties agree not to make any disparaging comments about the other, and any other statements or communications to the media or the public generally pertaining to the Class Action, this Agreement or its terms, shall be limited to promoting the virtues of this Agreement.

49. Dollarama may make such disclosures regarding the Class Action and the terms of the Agreement as they deem necessary in their filings with regulators, or to their auditors, or as otherwise required by law.
50. Nothing herein shall prevent Class Counsel from responding to Class Members' inquiries regarding the Agreement in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

VIII. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

51. Dollarama represent and warrant (a) that they have the requisite corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform the Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby; (b) that the execution, delivery and performance of the Agreement and the consummation by them of the transactions contemplated herein have been duly authorized by necessary corporate action on the part of Dollarama; and (c) that the Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by Dollarama and constitutes their legal, valid and binding obligation.
52. The Plaintiff represents and warrants (a) that she is entering into the Agreement without the receipt of any consideration other than what is provided in the Agreement or disclosed to and authorized by the Court; and (b) that she has reviewed the terms of the Agreement in consultation with Class Counsel and believes them to be fair and reasonable.
53. The Parties warrant and represent that no promise, inducement or consideration for the Agreement has been made, except those set forth herein.

IX. TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT

54. Dollarama may unilaterally withdraw from and terminate this Agreement if more than 500 Class Members have submitted valid and timely Requests for Exclusion.
55. Dollarama may exercise their right to terminate under this Section by giving notice thereof to the Court and Class Counsel on or before the date of the Final Approval Hearing.
56. Neither the refusal of the Court to grant the Class Counsel Fees and Expenses nor the amount of any Class Counsel Fees and Expenses finally awarded by the Court shall provide a basis for termination of this Agreement by the Plaintiff or Class Counsel.

57. If Dollarama elect to terminate the Agreement pursuant to this Section, the Agreement, subject to paragraph 59 hereto, and all related documents exchanged or signed by the Parties or submitted to the Court, shall be null and void for all legal intents and purposes whatsoever and shall have no effect of any kind on the Class Action or its adjudication.
58. In the event of termination, the Settlement Administrator shall provide information regarding the termination to the Class Members under the same conditions as those provided in the Notice Program. Dollarama will be responsible for all Administration Expenses up until the termination date.
59. In the event of termination, all Parties shall be restored to their respective positions as of immediately prior to the date of execution of this Agreement. Upon termination, Section III herein shall survive and be binding on the Parties, but this Agreement shall otherwise be null and void for all legal intents and purposes whatsoever.
